

Emelyne W. (Em) Mosier

Communications Coordinator

Community and Economic Development

Georgia Power • 241 Ralph McGill Blvd., Bin 10190, Atlanta, Georgia 30308

As communications coordinator for Georgia Power's Community and Economic Development organization, Ms. Mosier is responsible for all marketing and communications-related initiatives in the department.

Ms. Mosier began her career with Georgia Power in 1982 in the Atlanta Division office. She moved to the Corporate Facilities department in 1984, where she held a variety of positions before joining the Economic Development team in 1995. After working on the department's Operation Legacy program for three years, she began supporting the communications needs of the organization. Her responsibilities include public relations, advertising, media support, speech-writing and presentations, a quarterly newsletter, and collateral marketing materials.

Ms. Mosier is an active community volunteer, serving on the United Way's DeKalb Advisory Board, the Cole Society Advisory Board, and the Women's Legacy Metro Council. In addition to her work with United Way, Em serves on the board of the Atlanta Enterprise Center, an organization that provides job opportunities to Atlanta's homeless, and Beacon Dance, a professional contemporary dance organization. She chairs the Atlanta Neighborhood Development Partnership's Mixed-Income Communities Initiative Communications Sub-committee. Em is a member of the Georgia Economic Developers Association, the Technology Association of Georgia and Women in Technology.

A native of Lenoir, North Carolina, Ms. Mosier graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in English Education. She is a resident of the City of Decatur and is a graduate of Leadership DeKalb and the Metro Atlanta Arts & Culture Coalition's inaugural leadership class. She recently published a book entitled, Atlanta Women Speak, a collection of speeches by prominent Atlanta women.

Em can be reached at 404-506-4263.

Fax: 404-506-1825

E-mail: ewmosier@southernco.com

Web site: www.georgiapower.com/grc